Even when we face difficult challenges, God is our comfort and our peace. It is in these times when God will be revealed to us, most likely in ways that we would not have known before.

We ask God to help us in avoiding pain and suffering, disappointments and heartaches, and countless other uncertainties that are common within the human spirit. But we have also been taught to trust Him, to call upon Him for enduring strength, believing in His plan for our lives. We shall not fear evil for His rod and staff are our comfort. He will meet us in our pain, and He will lead us to greener pastures. We can rest in the knowledge of who God is, regardless of all that surrounds us.

In John 16:33 Jesus says, "I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

Go As A River by Colorado author, Shelley Read, is the September selection of the VMC book club. Inspired by true events that occurred in western Colorado in the 1960's, the novel explores what it means to lead your life as if it were a river. A most enlightening discussion is assured. Sunday, October 5 – The Shroud of Turin, Special Presentation by Lee Eddy (12:30pm – 2:00pm, Sanctuary)

(2) examine blood evidence: the type, flow patterns, and points of origin; (3) discover how pollen traces tell the story of the Shroud's journey, and (4) follow a map of its historical path through time and continents.

- Tuesday, October 28 – An Evening with Charles Wesley (6:00pm – 7:15pm)
- Tuesday, November 25 – An Evening with Casting Crowns and MercyMe (6:00pm – 7:15pm)
- Tuesday, December 30 – A History of New Beginnings: Methodism Then and Now

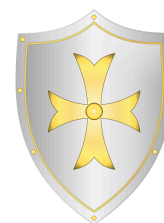

Sunday, September 14, we will be celebrating the many ways our members have carried out the mission of Vineland Methodist Church the past year. VMC is so blessed to have members who work in Children's programs, run the sound board, make VBS happen, help on cleanup days, serve on committees, provide refreshments for fellowship, work at the State Fair Food Booth, and help in so many other ways that we are celebrating YOU! The main dish and drinks will be provided; please bring a side dish for the meal. Join us following worship service for a feast of celebration and thanksgiving.

On that Day, we will also dedicate and bless our new Children's Chapel in the Education Building.*

Thank you – to all who worked, before, during or after the Fair! Also those who prayed for the fair or worked behind the scenes.

SEPTEMBER MISSION

During September, our church will continue to recognize first responders with appreciation and support. The first part of that will be done by delivering a large box of cookies purchased by the Church to each local fire department and sheriffs office to offer our appreciation for their hard work and willingness to help us when needed.

We will also be collecting monetary donations during this month to support those who do God's work here on earth by volunteering and choosing to stand guard over us. The Shield 616 Project is named in reference to Eph 6:16 which speaks of taking up God's shield of armor and being armed with the shield of Faith. Shield 616 is a continuing mission that provides rifle ready protection to police and sheriffs officers to support them in the line of duty.

As you may remember, those in the line of fire now includes firemen, and the Shield 616 Project will now be supplying this armor to some fire departments. Please make a donation for this project during September.
